RICE | BUSINESS

Something exciting is coming to Rice Business. Our new building is designed to create more space for our growing programs, students, faculty, and yes, even better dining options!

This isn't just a building – it's a space where you'll feel right at home, surrounded by people eager to share, learn and grow together. At Rice Business, we're all about opening doors to new possibilities. And soon, you'll experience it for yourself. We're excited to welcome you in. You belong here.

- Step into a space built for connection – 112,000 square feet where collaboration, learning, and networking come to life.

- Meet new people and reconnect with classmates, alumni, and industry leaders in finance, energy, healthcare, and more in our expansive new event spaces.
- Take a seat in one of seven classrooms designed for lively discussions and experiential learning.
