Program Highlights

Weekend Format

With classes on alternate weekends (Friday and Saturday) you'll have a more manageable balance between work, life and school.

Core Courses

In your first year, core courses sharpen your analytical skills and deepen your functional expertise, equipping you to lead effectively across your organization.

Executive Forums

The program opens and closes each academic year with a five-day forum, four in all, designed to build an executive mindset.

Executive Seminars

Executive seminars run throughout the program, integrating cross-disciplinary concepts and developing executive skills in negotiation, communication, team dynamics and career coaching.

Electives

In your second year, you can customize your MBA program by choosing from a broad set of electives that align with your career goals.

What Our Students Say

"The Rice MBA is a financial commitment, but I saw it as a smart long-term investment. For me, the return on education, leadership development and career growth outweighed the cost." – Patrick Garvey

"The professors did a fantastic job presenting the material, and almost immediately I found myself applying what I had learned in class to matters I deal with on a daily basis at work." – Gordon Pennoyer
