

The Rice Business Employee Engagement Project has officially begun! Based on the results of our recent Gallup Poll, project teams will identify areas for improvement in overall employee satisfaction, and opportunities will be researched and recommendations put forth in the short term.

The Rice Business Employee Engagement Project is made up of five focus areas:

1. Professional & Career Development
2. Processes, Procedures & Resources
3. Communication
4. Recognition
5. Onboarding

What exactly are we doing?

- Creating opportunities for change from within
- Improving what we already do every day
- Encouraging teamwork and creativity

Why?

- In response to the data from the latest Gallup Poll Survey
- To improve relationships with our colleagues
- Because this truly is a great place to work

What's next?

- Get involved by taking this quick survey
- Stay tuned for more information on how you and your department can get involved
- If you aren't a part of this project yet and you'd like to join, email Melinda English
- Still need more info? Check out our FAQs

