Giving Levels to the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Business

Maximize the impact of your gift to the Rice Business Fund or other dean's priorities by joining the Leadership Society. Recognition at one of these levels is based on unrestricted gifts to the Rice Business Fund or a restricted gift to another priority within the business school, during the past fiscal year (July-June) or year-to-date for the present fiscal year. Individual donors will receive credit for corporate matching gifts, donor advised funds or private foundations.

BENEFITS FOR ALL ALUMNI

Please know that all gifts to the Rice Business Fund are greatly appreciated and, collectively, make an enormous impact on the Jones School community. Robust participation in the Rice Business Fund is critical to how we are assessed as a school, both within our community and externally, and inspires others to participate. As a friend to the Jones School we offer the following engagement opportunities to all members of our community:

Lifelong Engagement

- Alumni events both locally and regionally
- Alumni events related to Reunion and Homecoming
- Alumni lunches at select companies in Houston
- Invitations to all-school events featuring top business thought leaders with networking receptions
- Engagement with the Jones School community through numerous social media sites
- Opportunities to speak in classrooms, mentor students, open access to career services through the Jones School job board, online libraries on careers and industries, and individual mentoring

Lifelong Learning

- Semi-annual Rice Business magazine
- Rice Business Wisdom, our online ideas magazine, featuring peer-reviewed business research delivered into a brief, lively and easy-to-read format
- Opportunity to audit any class at the Jones School at minimal cost
- 20 percent discount on Executive Education Open Enrollment Programs
- Alumni discount at the Susanne M. Glasscock School of Continuing Studies
